PASSING ON SOME GOOD NEWS

The early Church was preoccupied with the utter need for the mission of Jesus to be carried on through the work of His disciples. All of us, who have heard the Good News, have been called to share in the ministry and mission of Jesus. We are instruments of the gospel's spread, just as surely as were Matthias and the eleven. When you think about your family, your workplace, your neighborhood...isn't there someone to whom you feel called to tell the Good News about Christ's love, compassion, forgiveness and peace? Bring them to an RCIA Inquiry Session so that their questions may be answered and where they will learn more about the Good News as told through the Catholic Faith. No commitments are required. Anyone who is unbaptized, baptized into another Christian denomination, or baptized Catholic but has never received BOTH sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist are invited. Inquiry sessions will continue throughout the summer. For more information call the RCIA Office at 732-562-1990 x 1633.

-- 1 John 4:11

COMMISSIONED TO LIVE IN THE WORLD
In today's scriptures we hear two different stories about commissioning. In the Acts of the Apostles Peter leads the assembly in prayer that the Lord will choose and commission the person to replace Judas among the Twelve. In the Gospel Jesus prays that His chosen disciples might be consecrated, or made holy. Jesus does not ask His Father to keep the disciples separate from the world, but instead sends them out into the world. While we might think that holy people are set apart from the world, we cannot hear today's scriptures without realizing that God's holy, chosen people are commissioned to live in the midst of the world where they can reveal the love of God that makes the entire world holy.

OUR MINISTRY IN THE CHURCH
As we reflect on ministry during these days preceding the descent of the Spirit, it is important to notice that the place of Judas among the apostles was refilled because of his betrayal, not because of his death. He was, according to Peter, "allotted a share in this ministry." It is, then, betrayal of the mission and not merely death that leaves a void in the fabric of the church's mission. We forget that in the minds of the other apostles, Judas still would have been numbered in the company of the Twelve when Jesus prayed the prayer we hear today: praying that, as they were sent into the world, they would be consecrated in the truth. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus knelt to wash the feet of Judas. These are powerful and significant lessons for us to call to mind and keep in our hearts as we ponder the place of our particular ministry in the Church and the world, if we are remaining faithful to it, consecrated to the truth.
