Mass for Home School Families

The Church tells us that “parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children.” Many families throughout our diocese have taken this to heart and have chosen to educate their children, spiritually and academically, in the home. Bishop Checchio invites all home school families to celebrate Mass with him at St. Magdalen de Pazzi Church in Flemington on Friday, June 1 at 10:30am. After Mass there will be light refreshments and fellowship. Register online at diometuchen.org/homeschoolmass. If you have questions, call Erin at 732-562-2463. Dear Parishioners and Friends,

With much gratitude I present to you the report on our organ restoration fundraising program as of May 14, 2018.

$420,000 Projected Cost

$427,501.48 Total Gifts 102% (524 gifts)

$7,501.48 Over Goal

Thank you for your generosity. May our Lord bless you abundantly.

The removal of the present organ will be on June 11th.

In addition to the cost of the construction itself, it was necessary for us to contract a 10-year maintenance program at $3,000 per year, so the amount over the goal is already committed. A pipe organ must be serviced quarterly to maintain its optimum performance

Msgr. Bob Zamorski, Rector

Bishop Checchio has assigned Seminarian Gustavo Rodriguez to the Cathedral Parish for this summer. Gustavo will spend 10 weeks here before he returns to his third year theological studies. We welcome Gustavo and hope that his time at St. Francis will be enjoyable and a productive learning experience. Please keep him in prayer as he continues on his journey toward priesthood.

"There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit."
1 Corinthians 12:4

ALL ARE SENT
Fifty days after Easter Sunday we celebrate the fulfillment of all God's promises in the feast of Pentecost, a feast that has sometimes been called the birthday of the church. One last time we are reminded that we Christians have received the Holy Spirit, not for our own benefit, but to enable us to follow our Christian vocation.

The centerpiece of the scriptures for Pentecost is the account in Acts of the Apostles of the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The other readings for this Sunday help us to understand what it means to live out our Christian vocation. Paul's letter shows us the gifts and fruits that the Holy Spirit gives to us. John's Gospel reminds us that Jesus has sent all His disciples to share His forgiveness and peace, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

A SIGNIFICANT DAY
"And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were" (Acts 2:2). The Holy Spirit's arrival on that first Pentecost was signaled by a rush of wind. We all know what it's like when our windows are open just as a summer storm rises up. Curtains fly, papers become airborne, house plants shudder, dust is scattered. A rush of wind disrupts the orderliness of our home. The coming of the Holy Spirit, as celebrated each year at Pentecost, can also disrupt ways that have become comfortable and orderly. The Church always needs Pentecost. We need the breath of God's Spirit to blow away any complacency or malaise that has settled into our faith. Jesus breathes on His disciples and they receive the Holy Spirit. With that reception comes the power to share the Good News of salvation. Today, this is no less true for us.
Holy Hour For Priests
Today, Sunday, May 20 at 3:00pm, a Holy Hour for Priests will be prayed at the St. John Neumann Pastoral Center, Piscataway. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. Visit www.diometuchen.org/evangelization and click on “Intercessors for the Shepherds.”

The days will include dynamic talks, a visit from Bishop Checchio, sports and activities, prayer, small group discussion and so much more! Learn more and Register by visiting diometuchen.org/QuoVadis. If you have questions, please email: quovadis@diometuchen.org.
