Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Mercy Changes the World!”

On World Mission Sunday, October 23, Pope Francis invites each of us to promote change that our world so needs. God’s mercy, “the beating heart of the Gospel” (Misericordiae Vultis, 12) can bring about that change.

On this upcoming 90th World Mission Sunday, our diocesan family will join our sisters and brothers around the world as we gather at the Lord’s table. With them we shall celebrate our common vocation as missionaries. Our own prayers and financial sacrifices, through the Church’s missionary arm, The Propagation of the Faith, will help to continue the work of the Mission Church, in more than 1,100 missionary dioceses.

In the words of Pope Francis, as we witness to Christ and serve the poor “Let us not close our hearts within our own particular concerns, but let us open them to all of humanity.”

I echo these words of our Holy Father, as I ask you, please, to open your hearts as you and I connect on World Mission Sunday with every corner of the globe. You can continue this connection with the Mission Church all year long, through MISSIO, (online at missio.org).

I am grateful for your generous heart and spirit. I ask our Lord to bless you and your loved ones as we share the joy of the Gospel and help those spiritually and physically needy, on this upcoming World Mission Sunday.

With renewed best wishes, I remain

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen
“I lift up my eyes toward the mountains; whence shall help come to me? My help is from the Lord,” who made heaven and earth.”

Psalm 121: 1-2

PERSISTENT PRAYER

To the best of our knowledge, the authors of the New Testament did not spend much time in each other’s company following the Resurrection. They took their charge to go to the nations and spread the Good News seriously. Paul and Luke are an exception to this, having traveled together on missionary journeys. It is no accident, then, that perseverance in prayer is a favorite theme of both authors. Luke’s Gospel (which speaks most frequently about Jesus’ own prayer), Acts, and the Pauline letters all exhort us to unceasing prayer.

Paul’s personality was certainly tenacious; he most likely would have admired the persistent widow in today’s Gospel passage. The purpose of these passages is not to make us think—as infants and toddlers do—that if we keep asking or yelling or crying we will eventually get our way. No, the point is that when true disciples believe in something, we will persist in following that belief whether it is convenient or not, even when we come up against seemingly insurmountable obstacles.

DEPENDING ON GOD

“Getting by with a little help from our friends” is not an idea that began with the Beatles. Certainly the idea of “getting by with a little help from God” goes back at least to the first reading today from Exodus. How we get that help, however, is the key to this weekend’s scriptures.

No matter how inadequate Moses felt to the task God had given him, he persevered—even though he needed help from the people around him. The Israelites especially depended on God for freedom. The woman in the Gospel, desperate and destitute, had no one to depend on, but still she would not give up. She could not afford to bribe the unscrupulous judge, but she pestered him into weariness until finally he met her demands.

We sometimes need to turn to others to help us through difficult times; but if we always turn to God, we won’t be disappointed, for our help, the psalm assures us, is from the Lord.
