Lighting Hearts On Fire

Diocesan Marian Consecration Preparation Year
Bishop Checchio has announced his plan to consecrate the Diocese of Metuchen to Our Lady of Guadalupe in 2019. There will be a year-long preparation process launching December 12, the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, with Evening Prayer at the Cathedral at 7:30pm. All of the faithful are invited to attend. We implore Our Lady’s never-failing intercession by praying the following:

Our Lady of Guadalupe,
Mother of Jesus and Mother of the Americas, we are mindful of the role you play in evangelization of souls who have fallen away from the Church. As Mother of Divine Grace and as Mother of the Church, you preside over all the activities of evangelization and the implantation of the Gospel into the hearts of men and women. We ask you, Mary, to help us fulfill the mission of evangelization which your Son has given to His Church and which falls to us. Mindful of your role as Help of Christians, we entrust ourselves to you in the work of carrying the Gospel ever deeper into the hearts and minds of all who have fallen away from the faith. We commit our cause totally to your prayers and ask that it bear abundant fruit. Amen.

FINDING HOPE AMID ALL OF THE CHAOS
The scriptures of the entire Advent season are filled with messages of hope. They’re meant to help us realize that no matter how bleak and difficult and discouraging things may be, no matter how unchanged the dark things of life are, there’s reason to keep on going. Jesus Christ, in whom rests "the hopes and fears of all the years," is with us, and He is the source from which hope is drawn. If you or someone you know would like to hear more about Jesus and the hope that He is to us, we invite you to join us at an inquiry session. Inquiry sessions do not assume a commitment to join the Catholic Faith family. Inquiry sessions are opportunities to ask questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Faith family. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist or Confirmation, are invited. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to inquire, explore, and search for ways to grow in relationship with god. For more information, call RCIA at 732-562-1990 x 1633.

“Take off your robe of mourning and misery; put on the splendor of glory from God forever.”

– Baruch 5:1

PUT ON JOY

Today, Baruch speaks of the splendor that lies ahead for the city of Jerusalem and for all of us, regardless of where home is for us. Throw off strife, he tells us, and put on joy. Like a favorite old sweatshirt, joy fits, and how warm it keeps us, even when the winds blow cold.

Paul knows of this joy as he pens his letter to the Philippians, praying that they may grow in their ability to discern what is righteous and good. And Luke speaks to us of John, who was foretold by Isaiah and who sings a similar song—“Prepare the way of the Lord,” for salvation is at hand.

A man ahead of his time, Baruch spent his days joyfully awaiting a distant glory. On this Second Sunday of Advent, Paul and John know that this glory is upon us.

AWAITING THE SALVATION OF GOD

The world does not seem big enough to contain the jubilation of the first reading. In the Gospel reading, the Roman empire isn't big enough, either. The great powers of Rome are named and made to stand waiting for the arrival of God's salvation. And we find Paul meditating joyfully on what really matters.

According to Baruch, the city of Jerusalem is like a person standing on tiptoe looking for God's salvation, which is coming from the east. Those who were led away on foot, heads down, now come back, a proud people. Why, the very way is smoothed out. The path is lined with fragrant, lush trees.

It can't get any better than this, can it? Well, yes, it can. For a voice calls out in the desert. Here is the beginning of the salvation of God.
