Lighting Hearts On Fire

Diocesan Marian Consecration Preparation Year

Bishop Checchio will consecrate the Diocese of Metuchen to Our Lady of Guadalupe in 2019. A year-long preparation process was launched December 12, 2018, the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, with Evening Prayer at the Cathedral. We implore Our Lady’s never-failing intercession by praying the following:

God Our Loving Father,
We lift up our hearts in gratitude for sending Our Virgin Mother of Guadalupe to set hearts on fire in the “New World” with the saving message of the Gospel.
She is our compassionate Mother and she desires to remedy our troubles, miseries and pain by bringing us into a saving friendship with her Son Jesus Christ.
We turn again with renewed confidence and outstretched arms to our Virgin Mother of Guadalupe to set our hearts on fire in our Diocese of Metuchen as we prepare to be consecrated to her maternal care.
Give to each one of us a desire to be a missionary disciple - - so that the world may come to know the transformative love of Christ through us. Mother of the Americas and Star of the New Evangelization, Pray for us.

2019 Bishop’s Annual Appeal
Help Build a Civilization of Love

Please watch your mailbox for a letter from Bishop Checchio coming to you this week announcing the 2019 Bishop’s Annual Appeal. The campaign will again be conducted during Lent and our parish can earn a rebate of 50% of the amount collected over parish goal. Through your support of the Bishop’s Annual Appeal, you help those in our diocese whose needs are the greatest - - the poor, the homeless, and those struggling with illness or grief. Among other needed pastoral ministries, your gift also supports our Cultural Diversity Ministries and enhances the work of forming our youth. The many pastoral, educational and charitable ministries of the Diocese of Metuchen would not be possible without a generous contribution from every household. Please be as generous as your means allow.

A FISHING LESSON
Most of us would love a better and happier life. What holds us back is not lack of opportunity, but the hundreds of little anchors that prevent us from sailing into more promising waters. We drag around too much baggage. When Jesus calls us to Him, He often asks us to venture out into deeper waters...to be "fishers of men"...to bring others to Him...to pray for them, encourage them, support them, be hospitable to them, as they journey with this community of faith. If you know someone who seems interested in venturing out into deeper waters of faith through the Catholic Church we invite you to bring them to an inquiry session, which is an opportunity to ask questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Faith Family. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist or confirmation, are invited. For more information, call RCIA at 732-562-1990 X 1633.

Patriotic Program
Please join the students of St. Francis Cathedral School as they honor our country’s veterans, past and present, at our Patriotic Assembly on Wednesday, February 20 at 7:00pm in our school cafeteria. RSVP to Ms. Leila Toomey at 732-548-3107 with your name and branch of service, so that we can recognize your contributions.
"I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart for you have heard the words of my mouth."
— Psalm 138:1

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY!

“Holy, holy, holy!” Ancient languages, like the Hebrew used in the scriptures, did not always have a way to express superlatives in one word. Isaiah could not say God was “holiest,” so he used the threefold repetition of the same word. This bit of scriptural minutiae about these “three little words” that we sing at every Mass serves as a reminder that answering God’s call has to be grounded in awareness of God’s holiness. In Isaiah and in the Gospel passage today, we hear accounts of the revelation of God’s power and might: the seraphim in the temple and the miraculous catch of fish. These are not wondrous revelations for their own sakes. They lead to a response in mission, Isaiah’s “Here I am, send me!” and the disciples’ leaving everything to follow Jesus. And so must our own “Holy, Holy, Holy!” lead us to Christ in the Eucharist every Sunday, and to a life following Him day by day.

GOD'S CALL

In today's scriptures we hear three instances of people receiving and responding to a call from God. These accounts follow the pattern of most scriptural call narratives: a divine presence appears and speaks; the person expresses fear or unworthiness, receives encouragement, and finally responds to God's call. Today's first reading shows an unworthy Isaiah responding to the Lord's call, "Here I am; send me!" (Isaiah 6:8). In the second reading Paul tells us that, even though he had persecuted the church, he was called to be an apostle. In the Gospel, despite Simon Peter's protest that he is a sinner, Jesus calls James, John, and Simon to follow Him. They leave everything they have and follow Jesus - -that is, they become Jesus' disciples. These scriptures can challenge us to take stock of our lives. How do we experience Jesus' call to discipleship in our lives? How well and faithfully are we responding?
2019 Annual March For Life

My heart always leaps for joy when I witness the outpouring of love so many people are willing to publicly show for their Love & Respect for LIFE; Life in all its stages. This year was no exception. Even with the threat of bad weather, the sea of people spread as far as the eye could see and beyond in Washington, D.C., walking up Constitution Avenue to the Supreme Court; praying and singing the entire time. I personally estimate that over 800,000 attended this year’s March, more than I have ever seen.

Of course, our St. Francis pilgrimage would not be possible without the prayers and generosity of Msgr. Bob; the administrative support of Kara Kwiatkowski; the donation of snacks from Tom & Janine Sharlow; the Metro card assistance from Ed & Jean Lyons; and the school support from Mrs. Major and Mrs. Roberts. To all of you, my deepest thank you and heartfelt appreciation. For all those who attended this year’s March in person, in spirit and in prayer, you are disciples of the Lord, willing to publicly and profoundly speak out for those who cannot speak for themselves. Equal Rights and Justice for All! May God continue to bless each and every one of you as He has blessed me with your friendship. –Elaine Yunker
