Lighting Hearts On Fire
Diocesan Marian Consecration Preparation Year
December 12, 2018 - December 12, 2019
Bishop Checchio will consecrate the Diocese of Metuchen to Our Lady of Guadalupe in 2019. A year-long preparation process was launched December 12, 2018, the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, with Evening Prayer at the Cathedral. Bishop Checchio’s intention for this year is that each one of us opens our heart wide to God’s grace so that authentic spiritual renewal can take place. We implore Our Lady’s never-failing intercession by praying:

God Our Loving Father,
We lift up our hearts in gratitude for sending Our Virgin Mother of Guadalupe to set hearts on fire in the “New World” with the saving message of the Gospel.

She is our compassionate Mother and she desires to remedy our troubles, miseries and pain by bringing us into a saving friendship with her Son Jesus Christ.

We turn again with renewed confidence and outstretched arms to our Virgin Mother of Guadalupe to set our hearts on fire in our Diocese of Metuchen as we prepare to be consecrated to her maternal care.

Give to each one of us a desire to be a missionary disciple - - so that the world may come to know the transformative love of Christ through us. Mother of the Americas and Star of New Evangelization, Pray for us.

Besides this, individuals and families are urged to pray together and prepare for consecration by hosting a traveling image of Our Lady of Guadalupe in their homes for a week this year. Sign up: info@stfranciscathedral.org/732-548-0100.

Awakening Year Personal Consecration
Looking for a simple way to be spiritually renewed and develop a deeper relationship with Our Lord? Just set aside 15 minutes a day for 9 days during this Awakening Year to deepen your faith and make a consecration on a personal level to Jesus through Our Lady of Guadalupe. Read, reflect and pray daily. On the ninth day, you are invited to pray the personal consecration prayer, committing yourself to be an active Catholic and sharing your Catholic faith with others. Just pick the nine days most convenient for you and get started at www.lightingheartsonfire.org/prayers/Personal Consecration.

“Whoever is in Christ is a new creation:

– 2 Corinthians 5:17

A SUNDAY FOR REJOICING

Today’s Gospel story of the prodigal son is a favorite of many. We can identify with all the major figures and their crisscross of emotions. The father’s initial grief over his young son’s avarice is turned to relief at his return. The son’s grief over his loss of fortune, family, and friends is turned to delirious joy at the sight of his father.

We understand the eldest son’s bewilderment over his father’s generosity. For the older son, virtue seems not to be its own reward. For all his honorable toil and loyalty, there seems to be no celebration. The father, however, is prodigal in his forgiveness and mercy. He expects the same generosity from his older son. He wants all to rejoice when the lost one is found.

This is a Sunday for rejoicing. It’s time to pause, consider, and encourage one another. We are the prodigal children heading home. We are the elder siblings waiting with the eager Father, who scouts the horizon. In Christ Jesus we are reconciled to the Father and one another. In His death and resurrection we have passed over. We are a new creation. In this we rejoice.

THE HEART OF CONVERSION

Today's scriptures bring us to the heart of the meaning of the Christian journey of conversion. Saint Paul sums it up beautifully: "Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away" (2 Corinthians 5:17). The Gospel passage, the parable of the prodigal son, shows us just what this new creation is like. It is all about reconciliation. Just as God removes the yoke of slavery from the shoulders of the Israelites—see today's first reading—so, too, does the father in the Gospel remove the yoke of guilt and shame from the shoulders of his wayward son. That son first needed to turn away from his sin and seek out and ask forgiveness of his father. That is precisely what we have been doing during this season of repentance. We can only begin to imagine the kind of reconciliation feast that awaits us when we are embraced by our forgiving God.
R.C.I.A.

Today at the 9:00 Mass, the second of three scrutinies will be celebrated with the elect of our parish, who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil Mass, INDRA RAMLAKAN and GINA MOONEY. Today’s scrutiny calls upon the elect, and the community to recognize how we choose blindness...blindness to good, blindness to truth and blindness to values. Next Sunday the third scrutiny will be celebrated at the 10:30 Mass.

Please continue to keep in your prayers the elect and the candidates who will receive their sacraments at the Easter Vigil. If you have not already done so, we invite you to spiritually sponsor one of our elect or candidates. Simply, that means to offer up your prayers, sacrifices and good works during Lent for the intentions of one of our elect or candidates. Please take one of their prayer cards which are at the doorways of the Church. Send a card or a note of support, with their name c/o RCIA on the front of the envelope. You can deliver it to the rectory, or drop it in one of the collection baskets.

All are invited to the light reception, after the Easter Vigil, to welcome those who will become part of our parish family. Can you donate a plate of cookies, brownies or finger cake for the reception? Please call Sara Sharlow @ 732-562-1990 x 1633.

SFC Pre-School Open House: Wed., April 10, 7pm at 45 Library Place. Exceptional Pre-School & Full Day Kindergarten programs offering a rich variety of activities and experiences to enrich the emotional, physical, social, spiritual and cognitive growth of the young child. 3 or 5 full days for 4-year olds and 2 half days for 3-year-olds.
