CHRISM MASS

On Monday, April 15 Bishop James F. Checchio will celebrate the Chrism Mass with the priests of the Diocese. At this Mass, the Bishop will bless the Holy Oils which each priest receives for the rites of anointing. Saint Ambrose [340 - 397] began this custom - - which we now call the Chrism Mass - - in his Cathedral in Milan. These Holy Oils, which are used to sanctify the Faithful, have been channels of holiness for centuries! The Oil of Catechumens is used to anoint infants and adults before their Baptism; the Oil of the Sick is used on the forehead and hands of the infirm in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick; and Sacred Chrism is used to anoint the head of the newly baptized, the foreheads of confirmandi, the hands of a priest at his ordination, the head of a bishop at his ordination, and the altar and walls of new churches. At the Mass, all priests make a Renewal of Commitment to Priestly Service, recommitting themselves to their Bishop and to their ministry to God and His People; the Bishop and all Priests then ask the people for a pledge of their prayerful support. All are strongly encouraged to join the ancient, grace-filled Chrism Mass in the Cathedral at 4:00pm.

Attention Altar Servers: There will be Sign-Ups for all the liturgies of Holy Week and Easter Sunday. Contact Deacon J.P. Saggese at jpsaggese@verizon.net.

Lighting Hearts On Fire
Diocesan Marian Consecration Preparation Year
December 12, 2018 - December 12, 2019

Bishop Checchio will consecrate the Diocese of Metuchen to Our Lady of Guadalupe in 2019. A year-long preparation process was launched December 12, 2018, the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, with Evening Prayer at the Cathedral. Bishop Checchio’s intention for this year is that each one of us opens our heart wide to God’s grace so that authentic spiritual renewal can take place. We implore Our Lady’s never-failing intercession by praying:

God Our Loving Father,
We lift up our hearts in gratitude for sending Our Virgin Mother of Guadalupe to set hearts on fire in the “New World” with the saving message of the Gospel.

She is our compassionate Mother and she desires to remedy our troubles, miseries and pain by bringing us into a saving friendship with her Son Jesus Christ.

We turn again with renewed confidence and outstretched arms to our Virgin Mother of Guadalupe to set our hearts on fire in our Diocese of Metuchen as we prepare to be consecrated to her maternal care.

Give to each one of us a desire to be a missionary disciple - - so that the world may come to know the transformative love of Christ through us. Mother of the Americas and Star of New Evangelization, Pray for us.

In addition, individuals and families are urged to pray together and prepare for consecration by hosting a traveling image of Our Lady of Guadalupe in their homes for a week this year. Sign up: info@stfranciscathedral.org/732-548-0100.

You may also make your own personal consecration. Just set aside 15 minutes a day for 9 days during this Awakening Year to deepen your faith and make a consecration.

Easter Flower Envelopes are available at the Cathedral entrances. Donations may be made in honor of or in memory of a loved one, or simply as a gift to the Cathedral. Please indicate your intention on the envelope.
RCIA

At the 10:30 Mass this Sunday, the third of three scrutinies will be celebrated with the elect of our parish, who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil Mass, INDRA RAMLAKAN and GINA MOONEY. Today's scrutiny calls upon the elect, and the community to examine the death-dealing power of the spirit of evil and to proclaim the power of Jesus Christ to remove the stones that hold us back from life, to break the ties that bind us, and to set us free to live life fully. Please remember to pray for our elect/candidates as they prepare to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. If you have not had an opportunity to select an elect or candidate to spiritually sponsor during Lent, please take one of their prayer cards which are at the doorways of the Church. Please send your elect/candidate a small note or card indicating your prayers. Address it with their name, c/o RCIA, and deliver it to the rectory, or drop it in one of the collection baskets.

Very often, when a new family moves into a neighborhood, we welcome them with a plate of cookies, or a cake. Three new Catholics will be moving into our parish family. We'd like to welcome them at a parish reception, to be held after the Easter Vigil Mass. All are welcome. Can you bring a token of welcome with you – a plate of brownies, cookies, or finger cake? Call Sara Sharlow at 732-562-1990 x 1633.

Now that Easter is coming, isn't there someone to whom you can tell the Good News. Invite them to an RCIA Inquiry Session, where they will hear more of the Good News and about the Catholic Faith family who is trying to live the Good News. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another Christian denomination, or baptized Catholic but have never received both Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist are invited. For more information, call Sara at the above number.

FORGIVEN
Today's liturgy continues the message of forgiveness and reconciliation that we heard last week. The Church seems to be doing its utmost to deliver one simple message: "Your sins are forgiven!" What good news this is! Isaiah declares that God's saving action on our behalf is not something trapped in the past, but here and now. Paul urges us to recognize that true life is not "won" by following laws, however strictly, but is a free gift of God. Thus, our focus must be on the future, not on past misdeeds. Our eyes must be on the prize of life forever with God. In the Gospel, Jesus is challenged to demonstrate that He is a law-keeper, but He knows that this is a trap. If He counsels mercy, He will be declared an opponent of the law. If He follows the law and condones its punishment, He will be denounced as an inciter to murder. Jesus decides to do neither. Instead, He turns the tables and invites the crowd to forgo "legality" for the sake of forgiveness and reconciliation.

SOMETHING NEW
"See, I am doing something new!" (Isaiah 43:19). All during this Lenten season, the scriptures have revealed the truth of these words, proclaimed in today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah. We have heard about a bush in the desert aflame but not consumed. We have listened to a parable about a father, the depth of whose love for his prodigal son was almost inconceivable. Today, instead of condemning a woman caught in the act of adultery and joining in stoning her to death, the Lord Jesus sends her on her way, away from what would have been certain death, admonishing her to sin no more. Indeed, God has been doing something new in our midst. Even when we are trapped in sin, with no perceivable way out, we are offered forgiveness when we turn to the Lord with repentant hearts. Let us remember that God has done something new in the heart of each of us.
