SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY: Before setting the Reception date, contact Margaret Manza (732-548-0100 x212) for initial information about celebrating weddings at the Cathedral. Proper preparation usually requires one year advance planning.

Opportunities For Memorials

Did you know that in addition to Mass intentions for your loved ones you may remember them through the following memorial opportunities:

- Altar Flowers: Available weekly in the Cathedral at the High Altar for memorials, weddings and other occasions. Please contact Rectory Office for details.

- Sanctuary Candles: Available weekly in the Cathedral and The Lady Chapel. Donation: $20. Enclose in an envelope with information and put in collection basket or mail or bring to Rectory.

- Msgr. Behl St. Francis School Endowment and The St. Francis Scholarship Fund:

    Memorial gifts may be made to either of these funds which are used to enhance the academic excellence of the parish school and offer tuition assistance. Please inquire at the parish or school office for further information.

Protecting God’s Children

Our parish offers opportunities to attend the “Protecting God’s Children” workshop which is designed for anyone who has significant contact with children. Therefore, new faculty, CCD Teachers, Coaches, Scout Leaders and all other new volunteers must register for one Protecting God’s Children session. Participants are asked to register online at www.virtus.org, then follow the directions to register. Upcoming Cathedral Sessions, both of which will be in the Solarium:

- Wednesday, Nov. 13 from 7:00 - 9:30pm
- Saturday, Nov. 16 from 9:00 - 11:30am

Anyone wishing to bring up the gifts during the Offertory of the Mass (especially if the Mass Intention is for a loved one) should see an Ushers before Mass.

Saint Peter’s Gianna Center, located in New Brunswick, is dedicated to offering truly prolife women’s healthcare including infertility services and general gynecological care. All services are provided in accordance with United States Catholic Bishops Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services. Visit //www.saintpetershcs.com/GiannaCenter/732-565-5490.
Upon entering the Cathedral, please be kind enough to turn off all cell phones. Thank you.

Lighting Hearts On Fire :Dec.12'18 - Dec.12,’19
Diocesan Marian Consecration Preparation Year
Bishop Checchio will consecrate the Diocese of Metuchen to Our Lord through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12, 2019 at 7:00pm Mass. A year-long preparation process was launched December 12, 2018, the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, with Evening Prayer at the Cathedral. Bishop Checchio’s intention for this year is that each one of us opens our heart wide to God’s grace so that authentic spiritual renewal can take place. We implore Our Lady’s intercession on our behalf. During this year of preparation, our Diocese has planned several events that offer an opportunity to “light hearts on fire.” One of these opportunities is the Traveling Prayer Kit containing items to facilitate prayer. Individuals and families are urged to pray and prepare for consecration by hosting a traveling image of Our Lady of Guadalupe in their homes for a week. Kits are handed out at the Mass of your choosing. Sign up at: info@stfranciscathedral.org.

Charismatic Mass Followed By Prayers for Healing
On Thursday evening, November 7 at 7:30pm, a Charismatic Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral. Rev. Bill Halbing will be the celebrant and homilist. After Mass, prayers will be said for individual needs. All are welcome to come and pray with the group.

Book Fair 2020
St. Francis Cathedral School will host a Scholastic Book Fair in the Community Room. Visit our Book Fair and shop for books on Monday, November 4 from 2:00 - 4:00pm and Wednesday, November 6 from 6:00 - 8:00pm when all are welcome to visit the Book Fair. There will be hundreds of books for sale for children of all ages. Proceeds will benefit our school. Visit:https://bookfairs.scholastic.com/bf/stfranciscathedralschool/1.

All Souls Envelopes are available at the Cathedral entrances. All Masses on this feast, Saturday, November 2nd, will be offered for the Faithful Departed and a novena of Masses will be offered for the repose of souls.

Hope Through Education
Hope Through Education, whose mission is to close the educational gap by providing low-income families with tuition scholarships for children K - 12 to attend private and parochial schools within the four counties of the Diocese of Metuchen, will hold Inaugural Scholarship Social on Wednesday, November 6 and go to March 4, 2020. Guests will have the opportunity learn more about the newly incorporated, independent nonprofit charitable organization, and will also be invited to participate in activities during the day and then will be welcomed at an evening reception. More details as to how you can support this event and Hope Through Education at www.hopethrougheducationusa.org or by direct inquiry at info@hopethrougheducationusa.org.

Homebound: If you know anyone who is unable to attend Mass because of age or infirmity, but who would like to receive the sacraments, please contact the Rectory Office (732-548-0100).

“Our Lord has created persons for all states in life, and in all of them we see people who have achieved sanctity by fulfilling their obligations well.”

–St. Anthony Mary Claret
"The Lord lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down."
Psalm 145:14

GOD IS WITH US

The Book of Wisdom tells us that the spirit of God is in all things. What a wonderful thought, and what a wonderful image to keep in front of us as we travel down life’s road. For if the path is revealed in the treading, it’s good to know that God is with us—and all around us—every step of the way.

But Paul knows that this Divine Presence is not timid. Instead, God calls out to us, and Paul prays that we, along with the Thessalonians, might be made worthy of that call. And who knows more about God’s call than Zacchaeus, the tax collector? Jesus called him out of a tree, for goodness’ sake. Or perhaps more correctly, as we reflect upon the end of today’s Gospel reading, for heaven’s sake.

GETTING TO KNOW US

Many of us, if we were asked whether or not the goal of our prayer and spiritual life was to get to know God better, would most likely answer, "Of course." But how many of us would think that another purpose of our prayer and spiritual life was for God to get to know us better? We think of God as the One who views the whole universe as a grain of sand. How can God get to know us better? The author of Wisdom reminds us that the Lord is a "lover of souls" (Wisdom 11:26)--and lovers, if they do nothing else, are always seeking out their beloved, wanting to know them better, knowing yet overlooking their faults, wanting nothing but to love them.

In today's Gospel, not only does God allow the extreme sinner Zacchaeus to speak with Him, but Jesus seeks him out, up in a tree. And then - - losing his head with love for Zacchaeus - -Jesus becomes a part of his life by insisting that Zaccheus take Him into his own house, the house he lived in through ill-gotten, sinful gains as a tax collector. Wisdom and Luke both tell us that God is willing to walk right into our frail sinfulness in order to know us better, love us more, and bring us in forgiveness to salvation.
Do You know Someone Who...
Do you know someone, like Zacchaeus, who is attempting to get a better look at Jesus? Do you know someone who would like to know more about the Catholic Church? Do you know someone who is thinking about worshipping in the Catholic Community? Please invite your SOMEONE to meet with us at an Inquiry Session. RCIA Inquiry Sessions do not assume a commitment to join the Catholic Church. They are just a place to ask questions ABOUT the Catholic Faith. If you, or anyone you know, is unbaptized, or baptized but have never received Eucharist or Confirmation in the Catholic Church, and wish to know more about this God to whom we pray, as seen through the eyes of the Catholic Faith, call the RCIA Office 732-562-1633.

“Welcoming The Stranger”
with Kevin Tuerff
The Church of the Sacred Heart in South Plainfield invites all to a presentation and Book Signing by author Keven Tuerff on Wednesday, November 13 from 7:00 - 8:00pm. Kevin shares his story which was one of the inspirations for the Broadway Tony award -winning musical, Come From Away. He tells of the people stranded in Gander, Newfoundland, on 9/11/2001 and of their courage and their compassion shared with strangers to help make the ordeal more bearable. The book, Channel of Peace, will be available for purchase after the presentation at a cost of $20 for a signed copy.
