Banns of Marriage

I    Christina DaRold/Peter Moeller

II   Sonja Jamelo/Richard Maniatis

At 4:00pm today, a Mass of Remembrance will be celebrated to honor the deceased of our parish who have died from October, 2015 through September, 2016. All are welcome to come and pay homage to loved ones. This Mass fulfills your Sunday obligation.

Year of Mercy 24 Hour Eucharistic Adoration

Please join us on Friday, November 11 at 2:00pm as we begin a 24 hour period of Eucharistic Adoration in the Cathedral as we prepare for the closing of our Year of Mercy. The Year of Mercy will officially end on November 20, 2016. There will be periods of silence along with presentations (schedules posted) that will occur throughout the day and night. The 24 hour period of Adoration will end at 2:00pm on Saturday, November 12. What better way to end our year of Mercy than by spending time with Our Eucharistic Lord, fully present in the Blessed Sacrament.

We strongly urge all parishioners to register, to become informed on key issues, and to vote. The Church does not support or oppose any candidate, but seeks to focus attention on the moral and human dimensions of issues. We do not authorize the distribution of partisan political materials on parish property.

Adult Bible Study

The next session of Adult Bible Study has begun and takes place on Thursdays, after 12:15pm Mass and at 7:30pm. It is entitled Catholicism: Pivotal Players by Bishop Robert Barron. It is part of a series presented by Word on Fire, an organization which “proclaims Christ to the culture.” All sessions will be held on the lower level of the Parish Center at 45 Library Place. All sessions are free of charge to everyone, regardless of Parish. There is usually a book fee, but purchasing the book is not mandatory. The intention of the program is to share God’s love for each of us and to grow in faith.

Evening of Prayer for Peace: Tonight at 7:00pm at St. John Vianney Church, Colonia. A Rosary will be prayed for our nation and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will take place. Information: Carolyn at 973-349-4626.
“My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
   My feet have not faltered.”
   I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God.”

Psalm 17: 5 - 6a

THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD

In the Apostles’ Creed we proclaim that we “believe in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.” Today’s readings invite us to explore these beliefs.

The passage from Second Maccabees makes it clear that belief in the resurrection of the dead was not born in Christianity, but in a time preceding Jesus’ coming. The martyred brothers proclaim their conviction that God will raise them to new life. No threat of death can bring them to break one of their religious laws. Death of their bodies is no death at all, compared to the spiritual death that would result from transgressing the law.

The silly riddle about marriage put to Jesus in the Gospel gives him an opportunity to speak of the “coming age,” when no one will be given in marriage, and no one will be liable to death. Jesus too stresses how ancient is this teaching, attributing this belief to Moses, who knew that God is the God of the living.

LIFE EVERLASTING

The second book of Maccabees tells a powerful story, and a rather gruesome one at that. But central to it, beyond the horrible deaths inflicted upon the brothers and their mother, is their belief in the promise of resurrection and life everlasting in God.

Paul asks the Thessalonians to pray for him as he spreads Christ’s message of love, so that he might be delivered from other nonbelievers anxious to do him harm. The apostle is confident in such prayer, just as he is confident in the everlasting support of Jesus and God the Father.

And there’s that “everlasting” word again. The Sadducees, not buying the idea, ask Jesus an interesting—albeit meaningless—question about the status of married life at the Resurrection. He tells the non-believers that marriage isn’t an issue for the risen children of God. More importantly, He assures them that their ancestors do live on in God, even as evidenced by the Father’s words to Moses.
Disciples of Mercy
On Sunday, November 20 at 4:00pm, Bishop James Checchio will preside at Evening Prayer to conclude the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. As part of the celebration, certain parishioners throughout the diocese were chosen to be honored as ongoing models of a life that witnesses to the Lord’s “steadfast love and mercy” (Psalm 103:4). Among them is SFC parishioner Patricia Morgan, who will receive a Disciple of Mercy Award for her untiring volunteerism in our parish in so many and varied areas. We congratulate Pat and wish her continued health and blessings as she makes God’s love, mercy and compassion visible in our parish and beyond.

Discerning The Priesthood?
Are you, or do you know someone, who is considering a vocation to the Priesthood? The St. John Vianney House of Discernment will begin meetings this fall and winter, 7:30-9:00 pm to assist you in your journey. The dates and topics follow:

Nov. 30: “Signs of a Vocation and Spiritual Plan of Life”
Dec. 28: “Celibacy, Chastity, Charity and Cheerfulness”
