Opportunities For Memorials

Did you know that in addition to Mass intentions for your loved ones you may remember them through the following memorial opportunities:

—Altar Flowers: Available weekly in The Cathedral at the High Altar for memorials, weddings and other occasions. (Please contact the Rectory for details and availability.)

—Sanctuary Candles: available weekly in The Cathedral and The Lady Chapel. (Donation: $20. Enclose in envelope with information and place in collection basket or mail to Rectory.)

—Msgr. Behl St. Francis School Endowment and The St. Francis Scholarship Fund: Memorial gifts may be made to either of these funds which are used to enhance the academic excellence of the parish school and offer tuition assistance. Please inquire at the parish or school office for further information.

—The Cathedral Music Ministry Fund: Memorials in the name of loved ones may be made to support the Cathedral music ministry and choirs. Memorialize a Hymnal at a cost of $20 per book. Please inquire at the parish office.

If interested in any of these, please phone the Rectory at 732-548-0100 x210.

MEET THE KING

It is not often that Americans think of kings and kingdoms. However, the kingdom of God is a reality - a reality that we pray becomes present in our midst each time we pray the Our Father. Making that kingdom more present on this earth is a challenge which each of us faces. If you, or anyone you know (unbaptized, baptized in another Christian faith, or baptized Catholic but has never received both Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation), would like to know more about how the Catholic faith helps us to make the kingdom of God more evident in our day-to-day living, we invite you to meet us at an Inquiry Session. Inquiry Sessions DO NOT require a commitment to belong to the Catholic Faith. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to inquire, explore, and search for ways to grow in relationship with God. For more information, call Sara at RCIA – 732-562-1990 x 1633.

“On Thanksgiving Day we acknowledge our dependence.” –William Jennings Bryant
Upon entering the Cathedral, please be kind enough to turn off all cell phones. Thank you.

Disciples of Mercy

Today at 4:00pm, Bishop James Checchio will preside at Evening Prayer to conclude the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. As part of the celebration, certain parishioners throughout the diocese were chosen to be honored as ongoing models of a life that witnesses to the Lord’s “steadfast love and mercy” (Psalm 103:4). Among them is SFC parishioner Patricia Morgan, who will receive a Disciple of Mercy Award for her untiring volunteerism in our parish in so many and varied areas. We congratulate Pat and wish her continued health and blessings as she makes God’s love, mercy and compassion visible in our parish and beyond.

Give A Gift That Keeps On Giving
SUBSCRIBE TO A HYMNAL
With Christmas approaching, why not consider giving your loved ones a lasting tribute by subscribing to a Parish Hymnal in their honor. Our parish “Gather” hymnals include most of the hymns currently in use at the Cathedral as well as many newer mainstream compositions. Also included are the people’s responses of the current edition of the Roman Missal. These books are available as memorials for the deceased, tributes for the living or simply as a gift to our parish at a cost of $20.00 per book. Please place the form below in the collection basket or mail it to the Rectory if you would like to subscribe to one. Please circle:

“YES” TO THE KING
The Church crowns this year of mercy and grace, its liturgical year, with the solemnity of Christ the King. We could assume that a celebration of this magnitude would provide us with an easy, clear presentation of who Christ is and who He calls us to be. But this feast flings the paradoxes of Christ’s kingship in our face. Is Christ all-powerful? Is He the Messiah, the Anointed of God? Is He a victim, powerless in the hands of mortal rulers? Is He dead on the cross? Is He alive in the splendor of eternal light? Is the inscription above His head true? Is He Shepherd or slaughtered lamb? The answer to all of these questions is “Yes.”

What may be even more difficult is that we have also answered “Yes” to following this complex, paradoxical King who reigns from the cross of death, who upsets our expectations and challenges us to upset many of the expectations of the world around us. But before we despair of being able to sustain the difficulty of this mission, we are also strengthened by Paul’s words to the Colossians. We are reminded that if we keep our eyes fixed on the cross, the throne of Christ, we will also find and know the source of our reconciliation, our peace, and our hope to join Him, sharing the inheritance of the holy ones in light everlasting.

KINGSHIP
The book of Samuel recounts for us today the anointing of David as king of Israel. It was the elders of Israel who declared David king that day, but it was God who called David to shepherd Israel. Thus mandated by the citizens of his kingdom and by his God, David took his place in a long line of kings.

The apostle Paul speaks to us of kingship as well, but on a much higher plane: the kingship of Jesus our Lord. As great as David was, he and all earthly monarchs who came before and after him in their kingdoms around the world are minor kings by comparison to the true King. And lastly, we hear the story of that true King in perhaps his weakest moment: near death, hanging on a cross, taunted by a common criminal and by the world at large.
Adult Bible Study
A new session of Adult Bible Study has begun and takes place on Thursdays, after 12:15pm Mass and at 7:30pm. It is entitled Catholicism: Pivotal Players by Bishop Robert Barron. It is part of a series presented by Word on Fire, an organization which “proclaims Christ to the culture.” The course covers six people whose lives changed the direction of the Church: St. Francis of Assisi, the Reformer; St. Thomas Aquinas, the Theologian; St. Catherine of Siena, the Mystic; Blessed John Henry Newman, the Convert; G.K. Chesterton, the Evangelist; Michelangelo, the Artist. All sessions are held on the lower level of the Parish Center at 45 Library Place. All sessions are free of charge to everyone, regardless of Parish. There is usually a book fee, but purchasing the book is not mandatory. The intention of the program is to share God’s love for each of us and to grow in faith.

Christmas Party
Our Diocesan Office for Persons with Disabilities is hosting a Christmas Party for children and young adults with special needs on Saturday, December 17, 1:30 - 3:30pm at the St. John Neumann Pastoral Ctr, Piscataway. or call 732-765-6432 ASAP.

Memorial Tree Lighting
Flynn & Son Funeral Home will host its annual Memorial Tree Lighting at its Metuchen location (319 Amboy Avenue) on Wednesday, December 7 at 7:00pm. Please register if you would like a holiday ornament personalized with your loved one’s name to be included on our memorial tree, and to have his or her name read aloud during the ceremony. The tree will be illuminated during the ceremony and will remain lit throughout the Christmas season. For information on how to participate, or to RSVP, phone 732-548-2134 from 10:00am - 4:00pm or see website: www.flynnfuneral.com/Community Events.

R-E-G-I-S-T-E-R: New Parishioners - - and those who have not already registered - - are asked to come in or phone the Rectory. Without such registration, sponsorship certificates, etc., may not be issued.

A Festival of Organists
Organ virtuosi Brenda Day, James Little, Anthony Nardino and Christopher Deibert return to Saint Mary’s to play the church’s historic 1883 Jardine & Sons Pipe Organ. Hailing from Middlesex County, these fine musicians represent some of the very best performers in the state. Don’t miss this opportunity to hear some of New Jersey’s finest musicians perform on one of New Jersey’s greatest pipe organs on Sunday, November 20 at 4:00pm at Saint Mary Church, 256 Augusta Street, South Amboy, NJ 08879. Free admission ($15 donation appreciated). Meet-the-Artists Reception will follow the concert. For questions, call Music at St. Mary’s at 732-857-0202.

Annual Girl Scout Gathering
On December 3 from 9:00am to 2:30pm, the Diocese of Metuchen will hold its annual Girl Scout Gathering at the St. John Neumann Pastoral Center in Piscataway. Junior, Cadette and Senior/Ambassador Scouts will complete several activities for their respective Catholic medals. “I Live MY Faith” for Junior Scouts, “Marian Medal” for Cadettes, “Spirit Alive” for Senior/Ambassador Scouts. Girls will be assisted in finding a group for completion of medal requirements. Programs should be completed by April. Cost: $15. Additional information and Registration Form (due Nov. 28) can be found on website: www.diometuchen.org.
