Retrovaille - - Ministry to Couples in Troubled Marriages
Thinking about Separation or Divorce? You Can Help Your Marriage. Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Are you bored? Do you argue...or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrovaille is sponsored by the Family Life Office/ Diocese of Metuchen to help couples through difficult times in their marriages. A French word meaning “rediscovery,” Retrovaille helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love that brought them together in the first place. If your marriage has become unloving and uncaring, or if your relationship has grown cold and distant, if you are thinking of separation or divorce, or if you are already separated or divorced, but (both of you) wish to try again - - then the Retrovaille program may help you. It consists of a weekend experience, Friday night to Sunday afternoon, for couples (no group discussions) and six follow-up sessions. During the weekend, presentations are made by three married couples and a priest. Techniques of communication that enable a couple to examine their relationship are presented. Phone the Diocesan Family Life Office (732-243-4573. Call the McTagues (evenings - 732-583-4468) or the Colasuonnos (days - 732-236-0671). Next Session: February 10 - 12, 2017.
THE CHOSEN REMNANT

Zephaniah is one of the least-known of the Old Testament prophets. He speaks in today’s first reading of impending judgment. But the Lord will leave a “remnant” in Israel. This image of a remnant, or remainder, was to become vital to both Judaism and Christianity.

Paul’s letter to Corinth makes obvious his deep concern for the Christians there. They are too self-confident, he says, too sure of themselves. He admonishes them to remember that Christ has given them all they have.

Today’s Gospel comprises the opening of Jesus’ “Great Sermon.” As God gave Moses the law on Sinai, so now Jesus gathers His disciples on a hillside to teach them the new law. Each of these Beatitudes contrasts the humiliation of the present with the glory of the future: poverty vs. the riches of God’s kingdom, hunger for holiness vs. fulfillment in the Spirit, persecution vs. the reign of God. Jesus is here speaking to God’s chosen “remnant.”

Reflecting on God’s Word

The Beatitudes can certainly seem illogical and absurd unless we consider the person who is speaking. It is Jesus, the one who became “lowly and despised” in order to become “our righteousness, our sanctification, and our redemption.” He personified the anawim to become the true hope of all people. Jesus is the insulted, persecuted one who relies on God alone; he is also the merciful peacemaker and source of all blessing.

To the poor, the mourning, the persecuted, Jesus says, “Everything that you are suffering, I have suffered. God did not abandon me and I will not abandon you.” To the rich, the powerful, the content, Jesus says, “I shared every blessing I had with the poor and the lowly, even my life. Do the same and you too will know God’s saving mercy.” To both Jesus says, “Trust in the Lord of infinite possibilities, who will bless you with courage and peace and true joy together.” —Virginia Stillwell

“Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord.”

– 1 Corinthians 1:31

Blessed are the peacemakers

EXAMINING THE LAW

In today’s Gospel Jesus presents the Beatitudes – the law based on love. Is there someone you know someone who is not baptized, or who has been baptized into another Christian tradition, who would like to hear more about what the Catholic Church tells us about what is upright and moral in the eyes of God? Do you know someone who has questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Church? Sessions exploring these and other faith issues in relation to our Catholic belief are held every Wednesday evening, 7:30 pm – 8:30 pm. To come to a session does not require a commitment to belong to the Catholic Faith Family. These sessions are meant to help people to decide whether or not they wish to form a closer relationship with God/Jesus through the Catholic Church. Just suggest that they Come and See. Call RCIA – 732-562-1990 x 1633.
