Statement of the Most Rev. James F. Checchio, Bishop of Metuchen on the January 27 executive order issuing a temporary ban on immigrants to the U.S.

When it comes to the treatment of immigrants and refugees, the Diocese of Metuchen remains committed to following the principals of the Gospel message as reflected in Catholic Social Teaching. As a faith community, we will continue to reach out to those in our local communities who are most in need and to serve our neighbors regardless of background, ethnicity, race or religion.

Our Catholic Charities has provided legal and other services to individuals and families -- both Christians and Muslims -- and will continue to assist those in need. Our diocesan staff members continue to consider ways to support local refugee resettlement efforts. I urge all sides of this sensitive issue to proceed thoughtfully. Goodwill coupled with honest dialogue should enable us to honor the Divine command to welcome the stranger as well as safeguard all the citizens of this great country.

FOOLISHNESS

Sometimes the idea of repentance seems old-fashioned, naïve, even foolish. But if you're looking for real foolishness, you'll find it in today's readings.

We begin with Leviticus and the admonition, "Take no revenge and cherish no grudge" (Leviticus 19:18). We've heard that message before, of course, so we might forget how far it is from the so-called "practical realities of life." Saint Paul warns us about being practical, though. Whoever considers oneself wise had better "become a fool," because "the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God" (1 Corinthians 3:18, 19).

This "foolishness" continues in the Gospel: "Offer no resistance to one who is evil" (Matthew 5:39). In fact, offer the other cheek when you've been slapped. Hand over your coat as well as your shirt. Be like God, who sends sunshine and rain on the bad as well as the good. "So be perfect," says Jesus, "just as your heavenly Father is perfect" (5:48).

Living God’s Word

We pray to God to continue to pour the Holy Spirit into our hearts so that we can love with God’s own love, when our own ability to love fails us. We pray that we can grow into that full maturity that we see in Jesus, who prayed for His enemies from the cross. We pray that we can make the choice to love on a daily basis in order that we may become full-grown, complete, holy.
Many thanks to Bishop Checchio, Msgr. Bob Zamorski, Fathers, Sisters and our parish family of St. Francis Cathedral for your sympathy and kindness to me in this time of pain and sadness. I thank you for your prayers for my deceased nephew, Mohan, and I ask for your continued prayers for his wife, Leena and their daughter, Jenifer. I truly appreciate your outpouring of love and concern. My family and I could never wish for more. God bless you all!

—Fr. John Kavas

Visit www.aweekendforyourmarriage.org /732-904-9636.

DEALING WITH A GROWTH SPURT
In today’s readings we hear that the Lord calls us to grow in love and holiness. Is there someone you know who is not baptized, or who has been baptized into another Christian tradition, who would like to hear more about God, Jesus, the Catholic Church and this message of wholeness? Sessions exploring these and other faith issues in relation to our Catholic belief are held every Monday evening, 7:30 pm – 8:30 pm. To come to a session does not require a commitment to belong to the Catholic Faith Family. These sessions are meant to help people to decide whether or not they wish to form a closer relationship with God/Jesus through the Catholic Church. Just suggest that they Come and See. For more information call RCIA – 732-562-1990 x 1633.

New Jersey’s Adoption Law Has Changed
Since January 1, 2017, adoptees and certain relatives have been able to obtain a copy of their original birth certificate without a court order. The birth certificate will include the names of the birth parents who placed children for adoption unless a birth parent requests their name be omitted. The Catholic Church has always supported reunions between adoptees and birth parents, if such reunions were by mutual consent. The Church continues to do so through its Catholic Charities agencies. If you know individuals that could be affected by the changes to the NJ Adoption Law, please alert them. Anyone needing assistance can call a HELPLINE at 609-989-4809.
