CHILDREN OF THE LIGHT

The future king, David, in today’s first reading, is an example of a type of character present throughout the Hebrew scriptures. He is the child born out of place (not the eldest or most favored) who ends up receiving the promise of the covenant. The spirit of God’s anointing rushes upon him. In this way, he is similar to the man born blind from today’s Gospel. David’s family and the blind man’s community did not expect the miraculous grace of God’s love to work through them. Perhaps they, too, were “blinded” by the expectations and assumptions of those around them. Yet, after being touched by God, they both came to “see” the presence of God’s will for them. Both became messengers of God’s will. That same Spirit of God’s anointing rushed upon us at our baptism; we were given a candle as a sign of our membership in the Body of Christ, the Light from Light. Our vocation, then, is to fulfill that enlightenment, that anointing, as Ephesians tells us, by living as “children of the light.”

"Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light" (Ephesians 5:14).

We are at the midpoint of our Lenten journey of conversion. As always, God never gives up on us, especially those who have "fallen asleep" along the road to conversion. The most powerful stories of conversion are proclaimed during these final weeks of Lent. They have the power to shake us out of our sleep. Today's Gospel story of the healing of the man born blind exposes the real blindness in the time of Christ – the blindness of the self-righteous religious leaders. In a few weeks, at the Easter Vigil, the Church will proclaim "Christ our Light" as the paschal candle is carried into darkened churches throughout the world. May the darkness of sin that still pervades our lives, communities, and world, be dispelled by the Christ who comes to bring sight to the blind and light to the world.
RCIA

This weekend, at the 7:00 pm Mass, the second of three scrutinies will be celebrated with the Elect of our parish, who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil Mass, SARAH JENSEN. The second scrutiny calls upon the elect, and the community to recognize how we choose blindness...blindness to good, blindness to truth and blindness to values. Next Sunday the third scrutiny will be celebrated at the 12:00 Noon Mass.

Please continue to keep in your prayers the Elect and the Candidates who will receive their sacraments at the Easter Vigil. If you have not already done so, we invite you to spiritually sponsor one of our Elect or Candidates. Simply, that means to offer up your prayers, sacrifices and good works during Lent for the intentions of one of our Elect or Candidates. Please take one of their prayer cards which are at the doorways of the Church. Send a card or a note of support, with their name c/o RCIA on the front of the envelope. You can deliver it to the rectory, or drop it in one of the collection baskets.

All are invited to the light reception, after the Easter Vigil, to welcome those who will become part of our parish family. Please consider donating a plate of cookies, brownies or finger cake for the reception? Call Sara Sharlow @ 732-562-1990 x 1633 if you would like to donate.

Isn't there someone in your life, one unbaptized or baptized into another Christian Denomination, or even one who has been baptized Catholic but has never received BOTH sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist, who has been inquiring about God's love, or about Jesus, or about our Catholic Faith family. With the help of God's grace, invite them to an RCIA Inquiry Session. Call Sara Sharlow for more information: 732-562-1990 x 1633.

It will take place in the Cathedral on Friday evening, April 7 at 7:30pm and all are welcome.
