Once a month, on the third weekend of the month, we will publish our extended Sick List, containing the names of those who have long-term, on-going illnesses. ON THE ROAD

One central metaphor employed to describe the Christian life is a journey. In today's second reading, Peter addresses the early Christian community: "Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning" (1 Peter 1:17). When we think of a journey, we normally think of some kind of movement from point A to point B. The Christian journey, begun in the waters of baptism (point A) has as its ultimate destination eternal life with God in heaven (point B). Unfortunately we find ourselves on all kinds of detours along the way. Because of sin, we make foolish turns and sometimes seem unable to detect the presence of the Lord. Today's story of the two disciples on their way to Emmaus illustrates for us the fact that, even when we are dejected or on one of our many detours, the Lord is there, walking right beside us.

Timing

What took place as Cleopas and his friend found themselves joined by a stranger on their journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus? How could they not know this stranger was Jesus? Maybe the grace of it was that through faith they came to recognize the Lord Jesus among them, and it didn’t much matter whether the dawning of light came quickly or slowly. What did matter is that it happened.

Sisters of Christian Charity

June 3, 2017 will mark the 200th birthday of Blessed Pauline von Mallinckrodt (Mother Pauline), foundress of the Sisters of Christian Charity. In an effort to make Mother Pauline better known, we continue our series of biographical sketches that were begun recently.

At the age of seven, Pauline’s parents enrolled her in a private academy. All seemed to be going well until Pauline began to arrive late for school each day. Her teacher was puzzled, especially when she noticed the heavy and bulging schoolbag that Pauline dragged into school. An examination revealed pieces of broken glass in the schoolbag. “Pauline, where in the world did you get all this glass?” demanded the teacher. “I found it on the street. Poor children who don’t have any shoes might hurt their feet,” was Pauline’s reply. Already a love for the poor was beginning to take shape in Pauline’s heart at an age when most children do not yet realize that life is larger than their own little world.
