The mosaic, whose preliminary segment was blessed by Pope Francis during his own visit to the Shrine in 2015, will depict the Most Holy Trinity, the Blessed Virgin Mary as the Immaculate Conception, and a procession of saints who have an association with the United States. Encircling the base of the Dome will be the Nicene Creed. Please be as generous as your means allow so that the Diocese of Metuchen can do its part for this worthy project.

“He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness.”

–1 Peter 2:24a

THE CALL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Twenty-third Psalm, today’s responsorial psalm, is arguably the best known of all the psalms. The line that reads “Even though I walk in the dark valley / I fear no evil; for you are at my side / with your rod and your staff / that give me courage” (Psalm 23:4) connects this week’s scriptures to the wonderful story of the road to Emmaus, which we heard last week. The Lord Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is constantly at our side. He calls us each by name, beckoning us into a deeper relationship with Him. That call, issued to each of us at the moment of our baptism, carries with it the promise of the Good Shepherd: “I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly” (John 10:10).

FOLLOWING THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The joyful tone of the past three Sundays of Easter is a little darker today. All three readings remind us of suffering, death, and sin. We, like Peter's audience in the first reading, can ask, "What are we to do?" And the answer will be the same: we must reform. Or, as Peter says in his first letter, we have strayed like sheep and must return to the shepherd.

Jesus describes Himself as a shepherd in today's Gospel, and we know it was one of the earliest images of Christ in the apostolic church. Today's passage continues the darker theme of the first two readings. Danger lurks and the sheep need protection. They might follow a false leader; they might be stolen or destroyed. Only in Jesus Christ will we be safe. Only in Him will we have eternal life.
April 18, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Risen Lord,

We who live in New Jersey are fortunate to be only a few hours' drive from one of our nation's -- indeed the world's -- most magnificent churches: the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC. Many of you have, I'm sure, visited "America's Catholic Church"; perhaps on one of the Diocese's eleven pilgrimages to the Shrine over our 35 year history.

The Shrine is, of course, more than a beautiful church. It is a powerful witness to our Catholic faith and a symbol of the historic importance of that faith in our national discourse, even -- perhaps especially -- today. As St. John Paul II proclaimed when he visited it in 1979, "The Shrine speaks to us with the voice of all America!"

As the Shrine approaches its centennial anniversary (2020), Catholics throughout the country are being encouraged to support the mosaic ornamentation of the Shrine's central and largest dome: the Trinity Dome. The mosaic, whose preliminary segment was blessed by Pope Francis during his own visit to the Shrine in 2015, will depict the Most Holy Trinity, the Blessed Virgin Mary as the Immaculate Conception, and a procession of saints who have an association with the United States and the National Shrine. Encircling the base of the Dome will be the Nicene Creed. You can see a visual representation of how the Dome will look when completed at www.trinitydome.org.

On Mother's Day Weekend, May 13-14, a collection will be taken up in all parishes in the United States to help complete the Shrine with the completion of the Trinity Dome. As a member of the Shrine's Board of Governors, I ask you to be as generous with the collection as your means allow so that the Diocese of Metuchen can do its part for this worthy project. I thank you in advance for your support of this church representing the peoples, cultures, and traditions that are the fabric of our Catholic faith and our nation.

With my prayerful good wishes for a grace-filled Easter Season, I remain

Yours in Christ,
Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen
