Today, Divine Mercy Sunday, there will be a 3:00pm service (Not A Mass) at the Cathedral. A fitting observance of the Feast of Divine Mercy should include placing one’s complete trust in Jesus, attendance at Mass and reception of Holy Communion on the feast, veneration of the image of Divine Mercy, and mercy towards others in our actions, words and prayers. We hope our parishioners will avail themselves of this opportunity for God’s grace and mercy.

PEACE BE WITH YOU

‘Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”’ Just as the Risen Lord extended His peace to His disciples, He extends that peace to us too. If you, or anyone you know would like to hear more about the Risen Jesus, the joyful peace that He brings to us, or about the community of faith that gathers each week to celebrate that resurrection, we invite you to join us at an Inquiry Session. Inquiry sessions DO NOT assume a commitment to join the Catholic Faith family. Inquiry sessions are opportunities to ask questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Faith Family. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist or Confirmation, are invited. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to inquire, explore, and search for ways to grow in relationship with God. For more information, call RCIA at 732-562-1990 x 1633.

“The effect of our sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ is to change us into what we receive.”

– Pope Saint Leo the Great
BELIEVING
New birth, new life, good news! These themes run throughout today’s scripture readings. The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles describes the joyful early days of the newly born church when members devoted themselves to instruction, the communal life, the breaking of bread, and the prayers. The passage from Peter’s first letter echoes that joy, and assures those who now believe though they never saw Jesus that their faith will lead to their salvation.
But amid all the joy, the Gospel reading calls us to sober reality. Not everyone can believe so easily. Even an apostle can doubt this astonishing news of the Resurrection. Across the centuries, Jesus reaches forward to touch us today: “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

A SEASON OF JOY
"They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers” (Acts 2:42). This first line of today's first reading sets the tone as this fifty-day celebration of Easter opens before us. Today we listen to the teachings of three apostles--Luke, Peter, and John--who remind us that even though we have not seen Christ, we nonetheless are filled with joy as we place our belief in his saving death and resurrection. Each week during the Easter season we will gather as a community of faith to find strength and support from our God and from one another. Each week we will gather to break bread and offer the great prayer of thanksgiving, actions that will manifest the very presence of the risen Christ in our midst. Let us be open to the wonders of this season of joy.

Please take a chance and show your appreciation.
