Opportunities For Memorials

Did you know that in addition to Mass intentions for your loved ones you may remember them through the following memorial opportunities:

- Altar Flowers: Available weekly in The Cathedral at the High Altar for memorials, weddings and other occasions. (Please contact the Rectory for details and availability.)

- Sanctuary Candles: available weekly in The Cathedral and The Lady Chapel. (Donation: $20. Enclose in envelope with information and place in collection basket or mail to Rectory.)

- Msgr. Behl St. Francis School Endowment and The St. Francis Scholarship Fund: Memorial gifts may be made to either of these funds which are used to enhance the academic excellence of the parish school and offer tuition assistance. Please inquire at the parish or school office for further information.

- The Cathedral Music Ministry Fund: Memorials in the name of loved ones may be made to support the Cathedral music ministry and choirs. Memorialize a Hymnal at a cost of $20 per book. Please inquire at the parish office.

If you are interested in any one of these memorials, please phone the Rectory: 732-548-0100x210.

Miracle of Life in the Making - The First 9 Months

Thanks to recent advances in medical science and imaging techniques, we have the privilege of observing developing life within the mother’s womb. With current technology, we can see the miraculous fusion of two cells that culminate in a fully formed human life. Follow along with us in the upcoming weeks as we continue our journey through the first 9 months of life.

Week 34: The baby is now approximately 17 inches long, weighs 4 ½ pounds and continues to grow and mature. By this stage of development, the eyes are wide open, and if a light were shone into them, the pupils would constrict. The head is covered in hair, the fingernails have reached the tips of the fingers, and the toenails are close behind. The lungs are still developing, so if born at this stage, the baby will probably need some assistance breathing.

Bible Studies for Maturing Adults - 55+
Bring your bible and please join us as we study the Book of Isaiah, whose prophetic message is very relevant to our times. The program will be facilitated by Winnie Klimek, M.A., a long-time presenter of Bible Study in our diocese. There will be 8 Wednesday sessions and they will take place from 10:30am - 12:30pm at the St. John Neumann Pastoral Center, Piscataway. The beginning date is September 21, 2016 and the fee is $5 per session. This program is sponsored by the Family Life Office, Diocese of Metuchen. To register, call 732-562-1990 x1705 or go to http://diometuchen.org/offices-and-ministries/pastoral-life/family-life/ to print out the registration form.

Prepare To Lead: This Catholic Bible Study Training Course is sponsored by the Evangelization Office. The course offers a basic introduction to the Sacred Scriptures for people who desire to understand the Bible better and/or may wish to facilitate Bible Studies. The classes lay a foundation in the Catholic approach to reading and interpreting the Word of God. Anybody who is interested in growing in knowledge and love of the Scriptures is invited to participate. The course will be offered on Saturdays at St. Mary, Alpha and Our Lady of Victories, Sayreville. Classes begin in September and run through May, 2017. Contact the Office of Evangelization at 732-562-1990 x1634 or evangelization@diometuchen.org.

Golden/Silver Wedding Anniversaries
Couples observing 25th or 50th Wedding Anniversaries are warmly invited to celebrate with the Church of Metuchen. Renew your marriage vows at a special Evening Prayer Service celebrated by Bishop James Checchio here in the Cathedral on Sunday, October 30, 2016 at 4:00 p.m. Application forms must be signed by your priest, pastoral minister or deacon and returned to the Family Life Office by the Parish Office. The deadline for registration is Monday, October 17, 2016. A confirmation letter with further details will be sent once your application has been processed. For additional information, please call the Family Life Office (732-562-1990 x4573) or email: amatos@diometuchen.org. Application forms may also be secured by contacting the parish office or by logging on to the diocesan website: www.diometuchen.org; click on EVENTS tab (top of page).

Retrovaille - Ministry to Couples in Troubled Marriages
Thinking about Separation or Divorce? You Can Help Your Marriage. Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Are you bored? Do you argue...or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrovaille is sponsored by the Family Life Office/Diocese of Metuchen to help couples through difficult times in their marriages. A French word meaning “rediscovery,” Retrovaille helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that brought them together in the first place. It affords the couple the opportunity to examine and strengthen their relationship in a non-threatening faith environment. If your marriage has become unloving and uncaring, or if your relationship has grown cold and distant, if you are thinking of separation or divorce, or if you are already separated or divorced, but (both of you) wish to try again - - then the Retrovaille program may help you. It consists of a weekend experience, Friday night to Sunday afternoon, for couples (no group discussions) and six follow-up sessions. During the weekend, presentations are made by three married couples and a priest. Techniques of communication that enable a couple to examine their relationship are presented. Phone the Diocesan Family Life Office (562-1990 x1624) or visit the website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com. Call the McTagues (evenings - 732-583-4468) or the Colasuonno (days - 732-236-0671). Next Session: September 16 - 18, 2016.
“You have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God.”
Hebrews 12:22a

HUMILITY

Today’s reading from Sirach celebrates what will become the theme of today’s Gospel: humility. Pride causes us to demand from others an exalted estimate of our status, but humility allows us to see things more clearly. It allows us a broader perspective. Humility promises us the favor of God and the love of those who know us.

The second reading is a study in contrasts: the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai and the giving of salvation on Mount Zion. The Law’s appearance is greeted with solemnity, mystery, even fear. But Christians are not to be afraid. Coming to God’s mountain with Jesus, “the mediator of a new covenant,” is a happy, exuberant experience.

The parable in today’s Gospel concerns the danger of pride and the necessity of humility. The banquet setting, often used by Jesus, is a symbol of heaven’s abundance and of the fulfillment of God’s promise. The parable is not simply good advice on how to avoid embarrassment; it is about salvation.

Self Awareness

The biblical virtue of humility often gets mistranslated in our world. Many think of humility as ongoing self-effacement or even self-degradation. Humility, as the scriptures use it, is a sense of true self-awareness, of one’s capacities and abilities. A false humility is actually a kind of deceit, and is often a mask for the face of arrogance that lies beneath it. Thus Sirach today tells us not to seek what is too sublime for us, or to search out what is beyond our strength. We are called to have an awareness of what we are able to grasp, and with what we are strong enough to contend. Scriptural humility also has about it an openness to the goodness of others and what is best in them. That is why both Sirach and Luke’s Jesus instruct us not to deny our own self-worth, but to be ready to elevate and acclaim what is good or great in others. When we live this way, we are closer to understanding how God views all of us. We ought not place ourselves, but others, first. In living this humble way, we are living out of the heart of God, who is always ready to raise us up in honor at the table of the heavenly banquet.
A “New Evangelization” Course
Beginning in September, the Diocese of Metuchen will be offering a nine month course, Fire Upon The Earth, to form people for the mission of evangelization. The classes will take place monthly on Saturdays from 9:00am - 12:00pm at the Pastoral Center in Piscataway. The course will provide a basic introduction to evangelization from the Catholic perspective and will work to both inform the participants about evangelization and transform them into evangelizers. They will be shown methods and practical tools that they can use to implement evangelization. Classes will run through May, 2017. Registration is required. Info: contact the Office of Evangelization at 732-562-1990 x1634 or email evangelization @ diometuchen.org or go to www.diometuchen.org/evangelization.

Protecting God’s Children
Our parish offers opportunities to attend the “Protecting God’s Children” workshop which is designed for anyone who has significant contact with children. Therefore, new faculty, CCD Teachers, Coaches, Scout Leaders and all other new volunteers must register for one Protecting God’s Children session. Participants are asked to register online at www.virtus.org, then follow the directions to register. You may also phone 732-767-0415 with questions about registering.

Upcoming Cathedral Sessions, all of which will be in the Solarium:
- Saturday, Sept. 10 from 9:00 - 11:30am
- Tuesday, Sept. 20 from 7:00 - 9:30pm
- Saturday, Sept. 24 from 9:00 - 11:30am

AN OFFER OF HOSPITALITY
Jesus came to show us that God has a way of accepting the humbled: the beggars, the crippled, the lame and the blind. We, Jesus’ disciples, are challenged to identify the humbled in our own lives. Who do we know who are begging for Truth, for Understanding, for spiritual growth? Who are crippled because they do not know Jesus? Who are lame because they do not have a Faith Family to walk with them on their spiritual journey? Who are blind because they cannot see God? Jesus challenges each of us with a less-than-polite message: We must offer our hospitality to the humblest of persons, no matter how much we might wish to avoid them. Invite someone you know who is seeking spiritual growth to join us at an Inquiry Session. Inquiry sessions DO NOT assume a commitment to join the Catholic Faith family. Inquiry sessions are opportunities to ask questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Faith. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist or Confirmation, are invited. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to search for ways to grow in relationship with God. Call Sara at RCIA – 732-562-1990 x 1633.
