Did You Place A Child for Adoption in NJ?

New Jersey’s adoption law has changed. Beginning January 1, 2017, adoptees and certain relatives are able to obtain a copy of their original birth certificate without a court order. The birth certificate will include the names of the birth parents who placed children for adoption unless a birth parent requests their name be omitted. Birth parents who wish to preserve their privacy must submit a Redaction Request Form to the New Jersey Department of Health. The form can be obtained by calling 866-649-8726 x582. The Catholic Church has always supported reunions between adoptees and birth parents, if such reunions are by mutual consent. The Church continues to do so through its Catholic Charities agencies. Please alert someone you know who could be affected by the changes to the NJ Adoption law. Anyone needing assistance can call a HELPLINE at 609-989-4809.
Upon entering the Cathedral, please be kind enough to turn off all cell phones. Thank you.

Message From the Bishop on the Occasion of the 25th Anniversary of His Ordination to the Priesthood, June 20

“First and foremost, I am grateful to God, for the gifts of life and faith, the gift of His mercy in His calling me to follow Him as one of His priests; I love being a priest. I am grateful to God for the grace He has given me over these 25 years which has sustained me in being faithful to my priestly promises. I certainly pray that many more young men in our diocese will respond to God’s call, and we need to make every effort to be sure our young people can hear and know what a blessed life it is to follow Him through a call to the priesthood or religious life. As I celebrate this milestone anniversary, please continue to pray for me and know that I pray daily for you, too.”

– Most Rev. James F. Checchio, Bishop of Metuchen

You Have Been Called

A Prayer Group meets weekly to pray for the healing of our nation, that she may draw closer to Almighty God. We meet every Tuesday after 12:10 pm Mass (approximately 1:00pm) in the Joseph Room. When we gather we pray one Rosary and one Chaplet of the Divine Mercy. Please Note: This is NOT a forum for the discussion of politics. Facilitator: Eileen Lishinsky lmayfield@optimum.net

Congratulations to parishioner Allison Schreck whose ProLife video on the topic of “The Power of One” was awarded first place in the Diocese of Metuchen ProLife competition. Allison is a recent graduate of Bishop George Ahr High School, Edison which was instrumental in allowing a group of students to proclaim “I am a defender of Life.”
ENCOURAGING NEWS

In our turbulent world – terrorism, war, economy, rising gas costs, loss of jobs, broken relationships, etc., so many of us, at times, are filled with anxiety, fear, or intimidation. Today’s gospel is filled with encouragement. Jesus tells us that our God is there to support us and offers to be an anchor for us in our storms. Sessions exploring these and other faith issues in relation to our Catholic belief are held weekly. To come to a session does not require a commitment to belong to the Catholic Faith Family. These sessions are meant to help people to decide whether or not they wish to form a closer relationship with God/Jesus through the Catholic Church. If you know someone who is unbaptized, baptized into another Christian denomination, or a Catholic who has not received First Eucharist and Confirmation, and thinking about the possibility of becoming part of the Catholic Community, suggest that they Come and See. For more information call RCIA – 732-562-1990 x 1633.

Retrovaille - - Ministry to Couples in Troubled Marriages

Thinking about Separation or Divorce? You Can Help Your Marriage. Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Are you bored? Do you argue...or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrovaille is sponsored by the Family Life Office/Diocese of Metuchen to help couples through difficult times in their marriages. A French word meaning “rediscovery,” Retrovaille helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that brought them together in the first place. It affords the couple the opportunity to examine and strengthen their relationship in a non-threatening faith environment. If your marriage has become unloving and uncaring, or if your relationship has grown cold and distant, if you are thinking of separation or divorce, or if you are already separated or divorced, but (both of you) wish to try again - - then the Retrovaille program may help you. It consists of a weekend experience, Friday night to Sunday afternoon, for couples (no group discussions) and six follow-up sessions. During the weekend, presentations are made by three married couples and a priest. Techniques of communication that enable a couple to examine their relationship are presented. All inquiries are confidential. Phone the Diocesan Family Life Office (732-243-4573) or Tom & Pat McTague (evenings - 732-583-4468) or Rich & Annette Colasuonno (732-236-0671). Next Session: September 15 - 17, 2017.

What you hear whispered, proclaim on the rooftops

ENTHUSIASM AND GRAMMAR

There is a good reason that the writings of St. Paul don’t show up as examples in grammar textbooks. Today's reading is a case in point. It begins with one of those long Pauline run-on sentences that leave lectors gasping for breath. So what? Take a closer look at how Paul's fervor for his subject matter derailed the grammar. There is something admirable about being so caught up in his convictions that the words cannot come fast enough to express them, much less in an orderly fashion. Scripture scholars usually take this grammatical ineptness as a sign of a passage's early importance in the Christian community, something they were so ardent about that their language never got refined.

What leaves us in this condition? Re-telling the plot line of an action movie or the play-by-play of a sporting event? When was the last time any of us were so excited by our faith in Christ that we were left grasping for words, stumbling over our own errors in speech? It may be bad grammar, but it is an excellent way to inspire others with Christ’s message!

FEAR NOT

How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today's scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that "reigned from Adam to Moses" (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation one message rings out loud and clear--"Do not be afraid!" The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to fear.

AN OLD ENGLISH PRAYER
Give us, Lord,
a bit of sun
a bit of work and a bit of fun.
Give us in all the struggle and sputter
Our daily bread and a bit of butter;
Give us health and our keep to make,
And a bit to spare for others' sake;
Give us, too, a bit of song,
And a tale, and a book to help us along.
Give us, Lord, a chance to be
Our goodly best, brave, wise and free.
