Today, in Rome, our Holy Father, Pope Francis is canonizing Blessed Mother Teresa, who will now be known as St. Teresa of Calcutta. St. Teresa has left us many sayings and a favorite of many is the following:

Do It Anyway
People are often unreasonable, irrational, and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies. Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and sincere, people may deceive you. Be honest and sincere anyway.

When you spend years creating what others could destroy overnight, create anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous. Be happy anyway.

The good you do today will often be forgotten. Do good anyway.

Give the best you have and it will never be enough. Give your best anyway.

In the final analysis, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway.

–Mother Teresa

Would You Like To Be An Ambassador?
We Christians are followers of Christ. We have been baptized into a discipleship of Jesus. We, too, are His ambassadors. There are people who will be part of our lives this week, who may only come to know Jesus and His love for them because of the way we touch their lives. Be an ambassador for Christ. Invite them to join us at an Inquiry Session, which DOES NOT assume a commitment, but is an opportunity to ask questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Faith. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist or Confirmation, are invited. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to search for ways to grow in relationship with God. Information: Sara at RCIA – 732-562-1990 x 1633.

Dear St. Francis Parish Family,

Thank you all for the enormous outpouring of prayers, cards, visits and good wishes during my recent injury and subsequent surgery. Your support and friendship brought us much needed comfort and strength during a difficult time. We very much appreciate and are humbled by such an outpouring of love an d friendship by our St. Francis faith family. As rest and recovery continue, we expect to be back in full service to our Lord and hope to see you all soon. May God bless you and your families and keep you in His care.

With our heartfelt thank you,

Deacon Bob and Elaine Yunker

Ministry to Couples in Troubled Marriages
Thinking about Separation or Divorce? You Can Help Your Marriage. Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Have you just stopped talking? Retrovaille helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. A French word meaning “rediscovery,” Retrovaille helps spouses re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that brought them together in the first place. It affords the couple the opportunity to strengthen their relationship in a non-threatening faith environment. If your marriage has become unloving and uncaring, cold and distant, if you are thinking of separation or divorce, or if you are already separated or divorced, but (both of you) wish to try again - then the Retrovaille program may help you. It consists of a weekend experience, Friday night to Sunday afternoon, for couples (no group discussions) and six follow-up sessions. During the weekend, presentations are made by three married couples and a priest. Techniques of communication that enable a couple to examine their relationship are presented. Phone the Diocesan Family Life Office (562-1990 x1624) or visit the website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com. Call the McCaughs (evenings - 732-583-4468) or the Colasuonnos (days -732-236-0671). Next Session: September 16 - 18, 2016.

Men’s Group News
The first meeting of the Men’s Group after the summer will take place on Tuesday, September 6 at 7:30pm in the JPII Room. Come together with parish men of all ages to discuss topics pertinent to our Catholic faith. Info: Tom Thomas (732-692-4819)/Facebook at SFC.MensGroup.
“Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.”

–Psalm 90:14

EMBRACING YOUR CROSS
We often speak of the “crosses” we must carry in life. These can range from loss of a job to a serious or terminal illness to unhealthy relationships, and so on. The cross has become the wide-ranging metaphor for the trials, ills, and discomforts that are part and parcel of every human life. While we all understand this use of the word “cross,” it does a disservice to what the Jesus of the Gospels means by it. For Him, a “cross” is not something that fate, bad luck, or unfortunate circumstances foists upon one. It is, instead, something one chooses, something one embraces.

For Jesus, carrying the cross in discipleship was the rejection of earthly possessions or status, it was the sundering of bonds of kinship or friendship. It was, above all, the necessary kind of self-sacrificing, self-surrendering choice one had to make in order to be a true disciple. When life hands us a “cross,” we pray to the Lord to give us strength to bear it. If we are to be true disciples, we must also pray for the strength to reach out and willingly accept a cross as well. To bear up, with God’s grace, under the burdens that are not of our own choosing does take a strong faith. But to walk willingly under the weight of the cost of discipleship shows an even stronger desire to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ.

INVITED
The Good News is that we have all been invited—invited to the Kingdom, invited to be disciples. It’s a life-changing invitation, and like so many other such invitations, it requires a great deal of deliberation and discernment. Whether we choose marriage, ordination, single life, or community life, we know the serious planning and consideration that accompany these profound decisions. Like the tower-builder in the Gospel, we have weighed both the monetary and emotional cost. We have pondered and planned our lives in the direction to which we believe God has called us. And while we pray for guidance and acceptance of God’s will, we often fail to understand so much. Like Solomon, we turn to God for wisdom and counsel in our life-changing decisions.
Protecting God’s Children
Our parish offers opportunities to attend the “Protecting God’s Children” workshop which is designed for anyone who has significant contact with children. Therefore, new faculty, CCD Teachers, Coaches, Scout Leaders and all other new volunteers must register for one “Protecting God’s Children” session. Participants are asked to register online at www.virtus.org, then follow the directions to register. You may also phone 732-767-0415 with questions about registering. Upcoming Cathedral Sessions, all of which will be in the Solarium:

- Saturday, Sept. 10 from 9:00 - 11:30am
- Tuesday, Sept. 20 from 7:00 - 9:30pm
- Saturday, Sept. 24 from 9:00 - 11:30am

Prayer For Police Officers
Almighty God,
whose great power and eternal wisdom embraces the universe, watch over all policemen and policewomen and law enforcement officers everywhere. Protect them from harm in the performance of their duty to stop crime, robbery, riots and violence. We pray, help them keep our streets and homes safe, day and night. We commend them to your loving care because their duty is dangerous. Grant them strength and courage in their daily assignments. Dear God, protect these brave men and women. Grant them your almighty protection, unite them safely with their families after duty has ended. Amen.
