Nails In The Wall Gallery
The current exhibit at the Gallery is all abstract art, and is entitled “GOD in the Abstract.” From a total of 300 submitted works, 31 pieces were selected from 27 artists both near and far. The theme focused on God, and artists were invited to consider their work in that regard. The guest jurors were then asked to identify the best abstract art in the group. Gallery Director Linda LaStella commented, “Now that all the work is selected, I do find a very clear ‘point of view about God’ that comes through in both the individual selections and in the show as a whole.” The exhibit includes work of every media, from bronze and glass sculptures to photography to painting as well as digital art. This exhibit marks the fifth anniversary of the gallery and will be on view through December 31. To learn more about the gallery and its mission, visit www.nailsinthewall.org or call Linda LaStella at 732-322-6512.

Congratulations, SF Cathedral School!

We are proud to announce that Saint Francis Cathedral School has received the 2017 National Blue Ribbon School Award for Exemplary Performance, announced by U.S. Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos. Our student achievements in English and Mathematics are among the highest in the country - - the top 15%. For nearly 90 years, St. Francis Cathedral School, steeped in the tradition of service and peace, has offered a curriculum that promotes spiritual growth, academic excellence and social responsibility. A variety of academic strategies are employed to provide engaging educational opportunities. The faculty incorporates 21st century learning with Google’s G Suite for Education and utilizes iPads, laptops, netbooks and interactive white boards. STREAM activities and STEM Club projects are integrated within the curriculum, challenging students to think critically. SFCS faculty, led by Principal Barbara Stevens and Vice-Principal Judi Monteleone employ a character development program entitled Character Counts and a Middle School Advisory Program to cultivate respect, justice and responsibility while encouraging students to develop qualities of leadership, teamwork and character. Strong support from their Rector, Msgr.Robert Zamorski allows SFCS to be a learning institution that enables its students to achieve success now, at the high school level, and in the future.

“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.”
–Philippians 4:6

BEARING THE RIGHT KIND OF FRUIT

Today's readings focus our attention on vineyards. Isaiah's song concerning his friend's vineyard begins with inspiring and poetic images of an idyllic vineyard where the choicest harvest is expected. Instead, the vineyard yields wild grapes, which causes the owner to abandon it. The psalmist cries out to God, asking that God once again take care of the vineyard, which is the house of Israel. The parable told in today's Gospel offers a stern warning that those who commit treachery in the hopes of attaining personal wealth will be "put . . . to a wretched death" (Matthew 21:41). Jesus warns His listeners not to act like the murderous tenants in the vineyard. Instead He exhorts them to produce the kind of fruit that will lead them to the kingdom of God.

IN THE VINEYARD

As usual, today's first and third scripture readings are obviously related, with the second continuing one of Paul's letters - these days, the letter to the Philippians. The vineyard stories from Isaiah and Matthew both talk about evildoers coming to a bad end.

In Isaiah, it's the vineyard itself that produces "wild grapes" instead of the crop the owner dreamed of and worked for. So it will be "trampled" and "overgrown with thorns." In Matthew, those to whom the owner leased the vineyard destroy the dream. So the owner "will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants"(Matt. 21:41).

Yes, if we reject divine love we come to a bad end. And with all this talk of the unfaithful being trampled and thrown out, it's consoling to hear Paul's message to the Philippians, who were by no means perfect. "Have no anxiety at all," Paul said (Philippians 4:6). "Then the God of peace will be with you" (Philippians 4:9).
