Opportunities For Memorials

Did you know that in addition to Mass intentions for your loved ones you may remember them through the following memorial opportunities:

- Altar Flowers: Available weekly in The Cathedral at the High Altar for memorials, weddings and other occasions. (Please contact the Rectory for details and availability.)

- Sanctuary Candles: available weekly in The Cathedral and The Lady Chapel. (Donation: $20. Enclose in envelope with information and place in collection basket or mail to Rectory.)

- Msgr. Behl St. Francis School Endowment and The St. Francis Scholarship Fund: Memorial gifts may be made to either of these funds which are used to enhance the academic excellence of the parish school and offer tuition assistance. Please inquire at the parish or school office for further information.

- The Cathedral Music Ministry Fund: Memorials in the name of loved ones may be made to support the Cathedral music ministry and choirs. Memorialize a Hymnal at a cost of $20 per book. Please inquire at the parish office.

If interested, phone Rectory at 732-548-0100 x210.

–NEXT WEEKEND: We take the annual collection for World Mission Sunday (to be celebrated on October 22). We are called to fulfill the call we first heard at Baptism, the call to be missionaries, to share our faith. Let us pray especially for all who long to hear the hope-filled, saving message of Jesus, and for the Priests, Religious and Lay Catechists in mission countries worldwide who offer them that “Good News.” Please be generous in this weekend’s World Mission Sunday collection!

St. Joseph H.S. 50/50 Raffle.

ADVANCE NOTICE: Priests’ Convocation
Bishop Checchio has called for a Convocation of all the priests of the Diocese to take place on October 24, 25 and 26. Because of the absence of priests from the parish, no Masses will be celebrated on those days; Communion Services will be held at the usual Mass times (7:00am, 8:00am, 12:10pm).

“I can do all things in him who strengthens me.”
–Philippians 4:13

GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS

What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast - - a heavenly feast - - a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord's own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God's saving grace.

Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king's wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don't want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us.

COME TO THE FEAST

“On this mountain, the Lord of hosts / will provide for all peoples / a feast of rich food and choice wines" (Isaiah 25:6). That's what Isaiah tells us today. God is putting together a huge party for "all peoples," to "wipe away / the tears from every face" (Isaiah 25:8).

And what does Jesus tell us? The reign of God, He says, "may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son" (Matthew 22:2). When the guests didn't come, the king had his servants, go out "into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find" (Matthew 22:9). We are called to deliver that invitation.

One of the themes woven into today's liturgy is that of divine generosity. Asleep to reality, people often think they have "earned" what they have. In our better moments, though, we know that all our gifts - - even the spiritual gifts - - come through God's generosity. Our vocation is to invite people, to remind them the tickets aren't for sale. We can only show up and say thank you.
Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On World Mission Sunday, October 22nd, Pope Francis invites each of us to promote change that comes from responding to the lifesaving message of the Gospel. We have been given a tremendous gift in the fact that someone has shared their love of Jesus Christ with us. Because of our baptism and confirmation, we are set on mission; we have the mandate to share as a gift what has been given to us as a gift.

This year as we celebrate the 91st World Mission Sunday, our diocesan family of Metuchen will join our sisters and brothers around the world, as we gather to celebrate our faith at the Altar of the Lord. With them, we will celebrate our common vocation as missionaries. We participate in this world wide mission through our own prayers and financial sacrifices, and through the Church’s missionary arm, The Propagation of the Faith. In this way, we continue to be faithful to the mission of Jesus in His Church.

In the words of Pope Francis, as we witness to Christ and serve the poor: “Let us not close our hearts within our own particular concerns, but let us open them to all humanity.”

One way that we open our hearts is to make a sacrificial offering for the work of the worldwide missionary efforts of the Church. We give not so much because there is a great need, of which there is, but more importantly because we have a need to give; to be part of the mission of making Jesus known and loved throughout the world.

I am delighted with all that I have learned about how generous this diocese has been in the past to this critical dimension of our walk with the Lord. I wish to encourage you to continue to give sacrificially in next week’s collection for World Mission Sunday, so that the Joy of the Gospel may go forth to help those spiritually and physically in need, that everyone will know the personal love of the Lord Jesus.

With renewed best wishes, I remain

Yours in Christ,
The Most Reverend James F. Checchio, JCD, MBA
Bishop of Metuchen

Charismatic Mass with Prayers for Healing

“Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, [then] I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me.” –Rev. 3:20 Come Open the Door to Jesus at a Charismatic Mass followed by prayers for healing on November 9 at 7:30pm in the Cathedral. Rev. William Smith, K.C.H.S. of St. Anthony of Padua, Port Reading will be celebrant and homilist. This Mass is sponsored by the Body of Christ Prayer Group. For information, call Pam at 732-491-6042.

Congratulations, Outstanding Youth

Bishop James F. Checchio will present the Saint Timothy 2017 Award, the annual Youth Ministry Award recognizing outstanding contributions, to two teenage parishioners, Spencer Robert McLane and Kasey Claire Milan during the annual Diocesan Youth Mass on Saturday, October 28 at 5:00pm in the Cathedral. Our diocese recognizes high school Catholic youth for service to family, community, school and parish.

Spencer McLane attends Metuchen High School where he is a Peer Leader, helping freshmen to get to know the ropes and feel comfortable in their new school. He also helps out at SFC Vacation Bible School. As a member of SFC Youth Group, Spencer participates in Rent-A-Team-of-Teens by taking care of his blind neighbor’s trash cans and shoveling snow for the elderly. He has often volunteered at the Youth Group Car Wash and he came up with the idea of a vacuuming station, which he personally runs. Spencer has directed the yearly Living Stations and worked many times at the local Foodbank. Spencer is the leader of his Altar Server Team and tries to connect with the other servers. He is a model of a person who shares his time and talents.

Kasey Milan attends Edison High School where she is a Senior. She has been involved in the SFC Youth Groups since sixth grade. She has created and conducted Icebreaker Games for new members of the MSYG and participated in the visits to the Veterans Home where she and other members sing holiday tunes for the Vets. Kasey has worked on the Living Stations for three years and became Prop Manager, spending many hours backstage to ensure that the play was successful. She has also volunteered many hours at the local Foodbank. Kasey is proud of the fact that she attends Mass every Sunday and on holy days. She feels that she demonstrates prudence by using common sense in her leadership positions. She knows that she demonstrates temperance because she can have fun without doing anything wrong, and she knows how to stay calm in difficult situations. Kasey is a fine example of a Catholic Christian leader.

This young man and young woman represent service to family, community, school and parish. We are proud of their accomplishments and wish them continued success.

“Silence is a gift of God, to let us speak more intimately with God.” –St. Vincent Pallotti
