“Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.” –Matthew 25:13

WISDOM

We consider wisdom today. The first reading from the book of Wisdom presents this precious gift as a feminine spirit, a very desirable virtue sought by many and graciously present to all who seek her. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to illustrate wisdom in a practical, measurable way. The wise will conserve their resources, use them prudently, and mark the passing of time. The foolish, on the other hand, not planning ahead, will be in the dark. Both of these readings tell us how accessible wisdom is to all who simply and honestly seek it.

Paul's words to the Thessalonians are not about wisdom, but describe one result of true wisdom: To the wise person of faith even death holds no terror. Our faith in Jesus' resurrection tells us we will all one day rise to new life in Christ.

EXPECTING THE UNEXPECTED

If it ever crossed your mind that Jesus was somewhat lacking in a sense of humor, today's Gospel should belie any such notion. Jesus' story of the five wise and five foolish bridesmaids is downright hilarious. The circumstances of the story were surely familiar to Jesus' listeners, just as they are to us. Weddings almost never start on time. There's usually a delay. Buttons pop off at the last minute. Flowers wilt. Cars full of wedding guests get caught in traffic. Soloists contract laryngitis. Brides or grooms or priests show up late! So the only reasonable way to approach a wedding is with a sense of humor, to realize that something probably will go awry, and, when that happens, to smile about it.

Jesus tells this funny story to encourage us to be watchful, yes; to be ready, yes. But he doesn't tell it to make us dour and somber. The heavy-hearted tremble, waver, lose sight of their place and purpose, and fall asleep. The lighthearted know that the unexpected will happen – is bound to happen – so they are awake in their place and ready in their purpose when it comes.
Disaster Relief

In the wake of the recent hurricanes that devastated Puerto Rico and the Caribbean, Florida, Louisiana and Texas, and the deadly earthquakes in Mexico, Bishop Checchio has asked that the diocesan-wide Disaster Relief Collection, originally intended to close on September 30, be extended to support the relief and recovery efforts in the affected communities.

You may donate online at http://diometuchen.org or write a check made payable to “Diocese of Metuchen” with “Disaster Relief” in the memo line and mail to: Disaster Relief Donation, Diocese of Metuchen, P.O. Box 191, Metuchen, NJ 08840-0191. Please give generously, as your means allow, to help our brothers and sisters who are most in need at this time. The Diocese will accept donations through Thanksgiving, November 23. All monies collected will be used to assist victims of these recent natural disasters, who continue to be in need of our prayers. Thanks to all who have already contributed.

A “New Evangelization” Course

The Diocese of Metuchen offers a nine month course, Fire Upon The Earth, to form people for the mission of evangelization. The classes take place monthly on Saturdays from 9:00am - 12:00pm through May/June, 2018 at the Pastoral Center in Piscataway OR at St. Joseph Church, Washington, NJ. The course provides a basic introduction to evangelization from the Catholic perspective and works to both inform the participants about evangelization and transform them into evangelizers. They are shown methods and practical tools that they can use to implement evangelization. An evangelistic Retreat is incorporated into the content. Registration is required. Info: contact the Office of Evangelization at 732-562-2469 or email evangelization@diometuchen.org or go to www.diometuchen.org/evangelization. Fee of $100 includes course materials and Retreat in January.
