“Pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience and gentleness.”
1 Timothy 6:11

LOOKING BEYOND OURSELVES

The message found in today’s readings is an oft-told story. Citizen Kane, Daddy Warbucks, and King Midas are only a few of the familiar fictional characters who thought enormous wealth could buy happiness and fulfillment. Daddy Warbucks admitted stepping on a few people in his climb to the top. Kane tried to buy the printed word and stardom for his young wife, while King Midas conjured immense wealth and tragedy by his very touch.

We learn clearly in today’s readings that none of this is really possible. True happiness comes from caring for someone other than ourselves. It comes from the pursuit of the virtues Paul described to Timothy: faith, love, gentleness, godliness, righteousness, and endurance. The Gospel reminds us that we dare not ignore the needs of others, acting as though we don’t notice their suffering. God’s call to us is much too clear to disregard for even one more day.

SEEK VIRTUE

In today’s first reading, Amos condemns a self-absorbed people and their morally corrupt behavior and attitudes, which he warns will bring devastation. In the Gospel, the wealthy man is not given a name; he is simply the epitome of greed and irresponsibility. His lack of caring has created a gulf between him and the beggar Lazarus that not even Abraham can bridge.

In his letter to Timothy, a young bishop in the small Resurrection community of Ephesus, Paul exhorts this leader to seek virtues such as integrity, faith, and steadfastness with great gentleness. Paul also asks Timothy to keep in mind the future life with God who "dwells in unapproachable light." This is the blessedness of all those who, like Lazarus, were once poor but who are now rich.

Adult Bible Study
Three programs will be presented this year, from September through May. The daytime and evening sessions will be held on the same day of the week, Thursday, after 12:15pm Mass and at 7:30pm. All sessions will be held on the lower level of the Parish Center at 45 Library Place. All sessions are free of charge to everyone, regardless of Parish. There is usually a book fee, but purchasing the book is not mandatory. The intention of the program is to share God’s love for each of us and to grow in faith.

Fr. Gerry has recently begun leading a 5 week program on the Gospel of Luke. The format will be the same as the one previously used for the Gospels of Mark & John. An open discussion of the material presented will follow the presentation. The program will run on consecutive Thursdays through October 20.
