Divine Mercy Sunday

Today, Divine Mercy Sunday, there will be a 3:00pm service (Not A Mass) at the Cathedral. A fitting observance of the Feast of Divine Mercy should include placing one’s complete trust in Jesus, attendance at Mass and reception of Holy Communion on the feast, veneration of the image of Divine Mercy, and mercy towards others in our actions, words and prayers. We hope our parishioners will avail themselves of this opportunity for God’s grace and mercy.

RCIA - OFFERING PEACE

A special thanks to all those who wrote letters of support to our neophyte Dana Abbey. Thank you also to those who contributed baked goods for the Neophyte Reception after the Easter Vigil. Dana felt very welcomed by our parish family. Thank you!!! Our Gospel today tells us that Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” Just as the Risen Lord extended His peace to His disciples, He extends that peace to us too. If you, or anyone you know would like to hear more about the Risen Jesus, the joyful peace that He brings to us, or about the community of faith that gathers each week to celebrate that resurrection, we invite you to join us at an Inquiry Session. Inquiry sessions DO NOT assume a commitment to join the Catholic Faith family. Inquiry sessions are opportunities to ask questions about God, Jesus, the Catholic Faith Family. All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist and Confirmation, are invited. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to inquire, explore, and search for ways to grow in relationship with God. For more information, call RCIA at 732-562-1990 x 1633.

2019 Mass Book Opening: Tuesday, April 10, starting at 9:30am (please do not come earlier). Masses will be available from January through December, 2019. Because of the demand for announced Masses, a limit of three per intention may be arranged.

“Christ departed from our sight that we might return to our heart, and there find Him. For He departed, and behold, He is here.” —St. Augustine
St. Pio Comes to Diocese of Metuchen
Come and venerate the official relics of Saint Pio of Pietrelcina on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of his passing. This special occasion will take place in the Cathedral on Tuesday, April 17, beginning at 9:00 am, when veneration of the relics will begin. Relics include St. Pio’s glove, a lock of his hair, cotton gauze with St. Pio’s blood stains, and more. At 12:10 pm, our usual weekday Mass will be celebrated. At 1:00 pm, Most Rev. James F. Checchio will conduct a Prayer Service, after which veneration will continue all afternoon and early evening. At 7:00 pm, a Mass in honor of Saint Pio will be celebrated by Cathedral Rector Msgr. Robert J. Zamorski; Rev. Fr. Timothy A. Christy, Diocesan Vicar for Evangelization and Communications will be homilist. Try to arrange your schedule to accommodate such a wonderful event!

Vacation Bible School
Vacation Bible School takes place from July 9 through July 13, 9:00 am - noon for campers in Pre-K3 through Grade 5. This year’s theme is GAME ON! God wants the kids to grab their megaphones, lace up their cleats, and tune up their instruments. As they fill up the offensive line, sideline and drum line, your players, cheerleaders, and band members will realize God has given them His ultimate playbook. He wants them to join His team, train hard, celebrate salvation and encourage one another. Register from April 15 - June 1. You can find registration forms on the Cathedral website under Religious Education. Forms will go home with CCD students and with SFC School students. Get in the spirit with GAME ON!

Eucharistic Adoration in The Lady Chapel

SO THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

It is not often that the author of one of the books of the Bible comes right out and tells us directly why he is writing what he is writing. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, taken from the conclusion of John's Gospel, the author tells us that he has chosen to record these events so "that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (20:31).

The letter of John echoes this idea by saying that "everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God" (5:1)—what we might refer to as being "born again." Our reading from the Acts of the Apostles for this Second Sunday of Easter shows us exactly what it looks like when believers are born again through faith.

DOUBT

The desire to be able to prove the existence of a divinity has troubled humanity since human consciousness first became aware of the divine. To this very day we are fond of saying that any number of things—from sunsets to hot fudge sundaes—are “proof that there is a God.” We get so caught up in the story of “doubting Thomas” that we fail to notice that today’s Gospel gives us John’s account of Pentecost, the bestowing of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples following the Resurrection. Thomas, evidently, missed out not only on seeing the Risen Christ, but receiving the Holy Spirit as well. This is not to be taken lightly and, perhaps, makes Thomas’ disbelief a bit easier to comprehend. It also makes his professing that Jesus is his Lord and God—the only time the New Testament explicitly refers to Jesus Christ as “God”—more remarkable.
